The cit zons of Ohio have had made, by their wn boys, the Brightest Military Record Brightest Military Record man oby the citizens of any State in the Union, as the feets amply show.

Their own men won the laurels, and their own men—natives of the State—graduates attheir own colleges, have prepared the record for the press, from data furnished by thousands of soldiers, in a style inequalical and without a parallel in the whole country—the least critical authorities in the Union leing the judges.

These volumes sate sery ped, illustrated, printed and bonod in the most sumptions manner by
